Relative Clauses

LO: To learn to identify and use relative pronouns and clauses

Remember: A relative clause adds extra information about a person, place or thing. It often begins with who (person), which (thing) or where (place).
Example: My uncle, who lives in Bristol, has a dog.

Task 1: Match each sentence to its ending.

Draw lines to match the sentences and relative clauses.

1. My sister, ...	A. which has a red bell, is new.
2. The library, ...	B. who loves dancing, is ten.
3. My bike, ...	C. where I borrow books, is quiet.
4. Mr Patel, ...	D. who teaches music, plays the piano.

Task 2: Circle the correct relative pronoun.

Choose who, which or where.

1. The boy (who / which) won the race was delighted.
2. The cake (who / which) Mum baked was delicious.
3. The park (where / who) we play has a pond.
4. The nurse (which / who) helped me was kind.

Task 3: Fill the gaps.

Word bank: who which where

1. My grandad, _____ likes gardening, grows roses.
2. The shop _____ we buy bread is nearby.
3. The ball, _____ is blue, rolled away.

Task 4: Spot the extra information.

Underline the relative clause in each sentence.

1. The cat, which is fluffy, sleeps on the sofa.
2. Mia, who is my friend, plays netball.

Task 5: Write your own.

Complete this sentence with a relative clause.

My teacher, who _____, is helpful.

Challenge

Write a sentence about your favourite place using where.
